

Right now, I get at least one telemarketing call per day AND I'm on the no call list. I can't imagine all the "catch up" calls that I would receive if all my current business contacts are allowed to call me. I have a 3 month old son who's sleep is very important and should not be interrupted. Please keep the no call list the way it is. Thanks.